Last Will and Testament '82

I, Ivanna Able, will to Brian Koch my good grades and all the luck in the world, that he may succeed in it. I will to the future "CARS" of PLHS all the money I have; to go to movies or whatever on a Friday night; and the excuses to mom and dad for coming in at 4:00 in the morning and sometimes 7:00.

I, Rhonda Adcock, being of sound mind and borderline fat body leave to Janey Malecha my vibrant personality and lots of smiles, and to J.H. and M.M. I leave my modesty and humbleness because you need it, baby.

I, Nancy Allen, leave to all those up and coming Rah-rahs the best of times full of smiles and giggles; to Donna and Nancy, what a normal sister would leave; and finally, I leave Mr. Monical's classes baffled and "mature" (but mostly mature)!

I, Scott Anderson, will to Todd all my football practices, to Brett all the sprints in basketball, to my 'little sis' all my love and a special thanks to Mr. Sjoblad.

I, Laurie Antolak, will my basketball ability to S.M. my track spikes to "Bear" along with my want-wit presidency seat. To M.S. and D.B.mein toll Deutsch, viel spass in Deutschland nächtes Jahr.

I, Randy Avenson, leave this school with the thought that I have learned a great deal and I hope the up and coming will learn too.

I, Sue Badger, leave to Peter Birkeland my great test scores, for he needs them; to my sister, my ability to find a great guy and keep him; all my "nagging" to Sally Moberg; to the VB team, all the luck for next year, and leave the team in hopes that they will get along for the whole season; finally I leave full of great memories.

I, Larry Blaeser, being of superb mind and body, will my football position to Jim K. my track abilities to Todd A.,Rick S., and Dana B. all my fake and poor excuses to anyone who's dumb enough to believe them.

I, Lesley Boozell, being of corrupt mind and great(HA) body, leave my scholastic abilities to my dear brother Jeff and many more fun years of work to my mom.

I, Jenny Brine, leave my "good times" in German IV to German III, to L.H. and L.O. a punch in the nose; to K.H. and H.E.-"MAYBE"; to D.N. my driving abilities and my license; to Mr. Munz, 10,000 uncovered test and a moldy frog, to Mr. H. my famous line "Who's coming?";to Katie(Boogie) and Bridget, I leave all the fun I had at PLHS.

I, Gordon Brooks, being of sound mind (sometimes), leave to C.L. all the B.S. he has given me the last two years. I leave the faculty the establishment.

I, Randy Brunes, leave all of my fishing and hunting skills to Steve S., Lord knows the kid needs them.

I, Sherry Buchite, leave a big hug and GOOD LUCK to my brother Ray. To L.D. and K.E. a handful of "KNOBIES", to Heather Thompsen my pair of rollerskates, and to all the members and parents of N.C.C. Youth Group, all the good times D.D., L.D., B.D., M.B., P.H., G.L., and I had at the hayride the Drive-In, Red's, and at the rink.

I, Juanita Buss, leave lots of smiles and fun "boogie" times to Katie B. and Larry O.,a hug to Sally M., and a big piece of gum to Dave N. (for future trumpet solos). To Mr. Royer, I leave all those broken test tubes, and to Frau Vold lots of love and thanks.

I, Larry Derkson, leave my ability to make trouble without getting in it to David Nelson. I would like to thank the few teachers who helped make school easier, and last but certainly not least, I leave.

I, Dave Doughty, leave my sense of humor to my sister Linda; and to next years seniors I leave my ability to have a good time without breaking the rules.

I, Teresa Duoos, leave my stall in the can to Nancy M., and my ability at getting caught when trying to get out of school(or back in) to Dan C. and Matt J.

We, John Durham and John Hedman, in our unsound minds and bodies, give our parking spots at Spring Lake, Midway, Grandma's, Uncle's, and any other places to the younger unpubertized Pequotians.

I, Steve Engen, being of sound mind and extremely extrodinary body, leave my superb football skills to the entire team, my ability to slam, to the entire basketball, and to the Junior Class, the ability to handle the women.

I, Diane Evenson, leave Brenda Newton and Laurie Oddson all the luck in the world for their future years in high school, you'll need it.

I, Kevin Frankenberg, leave to Steve H. the 2-6's of L. he owes me, lots of luck to next years' football team, and to Mr. Munz, all of next years' ninth graders.

I, Julie Ganske, will my position in Mrs. Schmidt's study hall to whomever needs a taste of prison life,(yes mam, no mam), and my ability in band to Elaine Spielman and my muscles(mush) to Tuna and what's left of my love to PLHS.

I, Cathy Hartwig, being of sound ? do give all my Harlequin romances to Kathy Ebnet, my joys (ha) and sorrows at PLHS to Shannon, Barbie, and Sandy; My big mouth to all future cheerleaders, and to my sister, Teresa, Good Luck! You're gonna need it.

I, Keri Heidt, will to D.O., L.O., L.H., and the Breezy gang my set of wheels for after the games, to B.B., and "Heidichen" Vielen Dank; to M.M., all my smiles, to "Bear" my 200-m. hurdles in track, to H.E. and Kristi the fun of being a cheerleader, and all the love and joy in the world in hopes you have a nice time here as I did! God Bless.

I, Mary Hermerding, leave to Donna C. my unique abilities to drive; to Toni M. all the great times we had; to Jenny, Keri, and Sue the best always.

I, Connie Houck, leave to Miss Brown my shoulder to lean on when she needs someone to complain to, and my ability to get called out of class during a test to Mike Carlson.

I, Michele Jensen, leave to my sister Denise the ability to come up with countless excuses. To L.O., B.N., K.B., L.L., and D.E. my brains to never get caught; and to N.M., L.B., and J.B., all the luck in the world.

I, Monica Johnson, leave to my brother Tom the ability to stay out of trouble.

I, David Kennedy, leave to any naive student who has hopes of taking academic classes my magic wand, with which to fight this corrupt system of working out schedules, and to Mr. Monical I leave the title "Teacher Of The Day", but only for today.

I, Dan Kreitz, leave to Dave A. my ghost-like ability to come and go without being seen.

I, Chris Lamb, of insane mind leave the underclassmen the ability to make up excuses for not getting your homework done, and to all the teachers the unhappy thought of not having me in any of their classes; but most of all I leave PLHS.

I, Mary Laughlin, leave my ability to not get caught in the bathroom to Brenda Newton. To Mr. Monical, four weeks of vacation and my double warm sleeping bag to Mr. B.

I, Ann Leagjeld, leave many smiles of understanding and love to Ms. Steen; the many hours spent in the theater to the next actress Pequot produces, and the tennis courts to Bill Heisserer.

I, Damon Lyonais, will my football spot to Todd T., which he already has half of; my basketball skills to Tim F., and last of all the worst of luck to the F. five.

I, Toni McLean, leave to Jeff Graves my warped sense of humor; to my brother the stubborness to make do; and to everyone else I leave much love and happiness.

I, Mike Maher, leave my football skills to Bill H., cause he needs all the help he can get. My wrestling skills to Mary S., and to my sister Mindy I leave the fun of being a senior.

I, Bob Moberg, having acquired Superior attitude in this world, will to all people under five feet tall whatever it takes to break that barrier; all other skills to my sister, Sally, and I leave with all my fond memories of PLHS.

I, Cheryl Monical, being of questionable mind and body, gratefully leave to Mr. Royer my endless questions in Chemistry and Physics; to Julie S.,a smile and my GPA (she needs it) and all the groans and #@*! over frustrating assignments in Math to Father Dear.

I, Kory Nelson, of insane mind leave my little bro' all of my hard earned school books and parking spots.

I, Mitzi Nelson, don't have anything to leave, I can't leave my good working skills, I never had any, but I guess, I could leave my good welding skills to the future welders of PLHS.

I, Ken Nye, of sound mind and body, give my English grades and nickname to whoever wants them.

I, Sandy Pearson, leave to my sister, Kathy, the homework that I never finished and all the classes I never make it to.

I, Kelly Pettit, leave my ability to be happy at all times to Missy P., my ability to be a good girl to Jenny H.

I, Cindy Phillips, leave my Fiat to Ding-A-Ferd, to Jean S., I leave all my knowledge because we all know she needs it.

I, Tom Ridgeway, leave my great basketball managing to Tim Wallin.

I, Pam Robideaux, leave all my great years of basketball to Shari S., and Cami M., To Katie B., I leave the disco freethrow in hopes she keeps up the tradition and to anyone else who mistakenly takes Chemistry, I leave Mr. Royer's "Let Me Clear This Up" BEWARE!!

I, Christopher Roehl, being of dearranged mind and rejected body leave nothing to nobody.

I, Bill Ruttger, leave to Todd A., all the fun times we had in Band.,to Mr. Royer, I leave my vast knowledge of Physics; the ability to manage to Tim W., and I fore warn anyone's who's interested in cars: Don't box a Triumph.

I, Denise Sanaker, leave to my brother Mark good grades and lots of luck; to Mr. Sjoblad my savings account so he can get himself a decent pair of clothes and to everyone else I leave my laughter, smiles, and craziness.

I, Carmella Sposito, will to all you fellow cellmates the ability to escape from prison grounds during noon recess without being caught. And to finish your sentences without too many detention hours. HAPPY JAIL BREAK!!

I, Jean Starkka, leave my twin ability to confuse everyone to the Mezzenga twins, and to be one of the guys in the shop and be able to pass Small Engines without getting my engine to run to any girl with the guts to do it.

I, Joan Starkka, will my ability to never get detention to Duke, a better attitude towards school to Ron, and the chance to get here to Oly.

I, Cindy Volk, leave to my cousin Sandy R. and my niece Teresia O. all of my homework and the ability to write their notes illegally.

I, Brian Wallace, leave to the football team the ability to survive Mr. B's station, or at least to live through it! To all the teachers of Pequot, I leave lots of thanks for making my senior year a fun and enjoyable one.

I, Scot Weise, leave my chair in band to Jeff; and all my barefooting, slolam, trick, and show skiing abilities to Earl and anybody else who enjoys waterskiing.

I, Mitch Wright, being of no mind and not so sound body, leave my car to Sally M. so she can do all the ditch driving she wants to; to Mr. Monical, Mr. Munz, Mr. G., and Mr. S. a big thanks, and to the F. five the worst of luck.

I, Dave Zwack, being basically of sound mind, leave my abilities of duck and grouse hunting to Steve P., my 5th hour Study Hall Prison Camp seat to any who requires disciplinary actions, and my great football skills to anyone that needs them.

Voyage is the class of different interests. Each person does his or her own thing to develop a special talent or hobby. A person can create anything that he or she wants to show and express to others. Such things as research papers, career studies, diagrams, stories, drawings and current events are only a few of the things that have been done by Voyage students. The students receive assistance from teachers, counselors, or people from the community to help them with their projects. The students set dates and times for themselves and guidelines for their particular interest. The Voyage class, instructed by Mrs. Vold and Mrs. Ewert, is a great experience and a time to share ideas and thoughts with others.

Congratulations to this years annual staff for their fine work! Nobody realizes the amount of work that falls on the editor and a few members of the staff.

Sue Badger, editor, was fantastic in organizing the work, picking good people to work with and seeing the job through each deadline.

Mary Hermerding was like the manager; taking responsibilities for many projects and tasks. I don't know what we would have done without her.

Some of the other students who put in a lot of time were Jenny Brine, Keri Heidt, Denise Sanaker, Sally Moberg, and Laurie Antolak with pictures.

To these fine individuals, many Thanks from the student body. I am very proud of all of you.

The Football team had a rough and hard season this year. They started their season being shut out for three games but by the fourth game, the Indians hard work began to show up on the scoreboard. This years team was made up of young and very ambitious players, who tried their best. Even though it was a very rough season, the guys deserve alot of credit!
